New Navadvipa Dhama, Temple of the Pancatattva
51 Coelho Way, Honolulu HI 96817

Welcome

Thanks for visiting us. ISKCON Hawaii Cultural Center was established in 1974 by Alfred Brush Ford, great-grandson of automobile-baron Henry Ford. We are just one of hundreds of temples, farms and communities located around the world, which form the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON). His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada established the society in 1966 and we, the members of ISKCON Hawaii are dedicated to fulfilling his vision of presenting the rich spiritual heritage of India's Vedic culture here in Hawaii and throughout the world.

From the President

On behalf of the members and staff of ISKCON Hawaii we thank you for visiting our temple and hope you find your visit enjoyable. We would greatly appreciate your feedback and suggestions so we may continue improving our service to the community. Please don't hesitate to contact me if there is any way I can be of assistance to you.

We are at your service...Sundarananda, President, ISKCON Hawaii

Upcoming Event

The "Mayapur Chandra's" are a group of young devotees from Sri Dhama Mayapura, India, headed by Naru Gopal Prabhu, that travel the world entertaining and teaching who are expertly trained in kirtan, and other devotional fields. While their main focus is holding grand kirtan programs (done in traditional Mayapur style), the Mayapur Chandra's are really about bringing the Mayapur experience to centers and temples around everywhere. By sharing talents of local Mayapur devotees (especially our second generation youth) with devotees worldwide, they hope to spread the traditional Gaudiya Vaisnava culture. For a nominal fee they are available to teach how to play various musical instruments and the art of kirtan. They will be visiting the Honolulu temple between April 23rd to the 26th. Call the temple president Sundarananda for more info: 808-384-5498
